GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE May 22, 2022 | 6th Sunday of Easter

Jesus tells his disciples, “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you.” The peace that Jesus gives is far different than the kind that comes from the absence of war, conflict, or affliction. The peace that God offers is found alongside suffering and hardship, not necessarily in their absence. St. Teresa of Avila offers us a bit of wisdom regarding peace: “May today there be peace within. May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be. May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith. May you use those gifts that you have received and pass on the love that has been given to you. May you be content knowing you are a child of God. Let this presence settle into your bones and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise, and love. It is there for each and every one of us.”

In order for us to experience the divine peace that Jesus offers, we have to allow God’s presence to settle into our bones! It is only when this happens that we can be truly taught by the Holy Spirit to discern the true path to peace and find ourselves with untroubled hearts. The world and our lives are so unpredictable and changeable. If we look for a source of lasting and real peace only there, our search will never be satisfied. Something will always unsettle and disturb us. The Jewish disciples could really relate to what Jesus was saying about peace (shalom). They already knew that it was more a matter of achieving wholeness and wellbeing than anything else.

Wholeness and wellbeing are precisely what is uncovered when we begin to really see and know the height, depth, and breadth of God’s presence and promise. The elegance of God’s Divine life flows through our blood and the marrow in our bones. It is that close and deep. As we breathe in and exhale God’s life, peace becomes what we know within and what is exhaled out. This remains in the midst of intense conflict, persecution, suffering, rejection, and even death. ©LPi

Saint Joseph, The Blessed Mother Mary, and Jesus all know what it is like to actively try and save a baby. They know the feelings of powerlessness, fear, and the need to trust in God when the law allows the killing of babies.

The Flight to Egypt. - Mathew 2:13-18 When they had departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt,* and stay there until I tell you. Herod is going to search for the child to destroy him." Joseph rose and took the child and his mother by night and departed for Egypt.

* He stayed there until the death of Herod, that what the Lord had said through the prophet might be fulfilled, "Out of Egypt I called my son."

The Massacre of the Infants. When Herod realized that he had been deceived by the magi, he became furious. He ordered the massacre of all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity two years old and under, in accordance with the time he had ascertained from the magi. Then was fulfilled what had been said through Jeremiah the prophet:

"A voice was heard in Ramah, sobbing and loud lamentation; Rachel weeping for her children, and she would not be consoled, since they were no more."

We know that the Church teaches that all life has a soul from the moment of conception and therefore has a right to be born. There is a flight into Egypt occurring every day across the world. There are nearly 1,000,000 abortions every year in the United States alone. The silent voices of these babies, rely on us, to do what we can, to be like Saint Joseph and the Blessed Mother to save them.

Life

She announced her presence by a tiny flutter in her mother's womb,
That her timing to be conceived was not good she never knew.

She grew every day and ate what mom ate,

She went where mom went and often slept on the way,
but when mom went to bed she was sure to be awake,

She would poke and she would kick hoping mom would rock her to sleep again,
She thought that mom liked it since she saw the imprint of her hand, on her hand.

Mom was the whole world to her a safe and happy place,

And on the day she was born,
and the bright lights met her face

when she began to cry,

she was kissed on the forehead and hushed by familiar sighs

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, protect and save the unborn!

There are many things we can do. As a man once quoted,

"If I believe that abortion is murder, do I act like it?" Ways you can help to save the babies!

- Pray, Pray, Pray
- Contribute to organizations that support and encourage mothers to have their babies and who also provide financial and medical assistance.
- Contact your representatives in defense of life.
- Vote for Political Leaders who defend the Right to Life
- Speak to people one on one about why you are pro-life.
- Encourage pregnant mothers and mothers with children with a kind word or a smile.
- Teach your children from a young age about the beauty of all life and God's plan for them.
- If you encounter someone who has had an abortion support them with love and understanding and tell them about Rachel's Vineyard, a place of healing for both mothers and fathers who have had an abortion. Rachelsvineyard.org

"It is a poverty that a child must die so that you may live as you wish." - Mother Teresa

"How can there be too many children? That is like saying there are too many flowers." - Mother Teresa

CCC2270 Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person - among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life. Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you.<sup>73</sup>

My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately wrought in the depths of the earth.<sup>74</sup>

CCC2271 Since the first century the Church has affirmed the moral evil of every procured abortion. This teaching has not changed and remains unchangeable. Direct abortion, that is to say, abortion willed either as an end or a means, is gravely contrary to the moral law:

You shall not kill the embryo by abortion and shall not cause the newborn to perish.<sup>75</sup>

God, the Lord of life, has entrusted to men the noble mission of safeguarding life, and men must carry it out in a manner worthy of themselves. Life must be protected with the utmost care from the moment of conception: abortion and infanticide are abominable crimes.<sup>76</sup>

CCC2272 Formal cooperation in an abortion constitutes a grave offense. The Church attaches the canonical penalty of excommunication to this crime against human life. "A person who procures a completed abortion incurs excommunication latae sententiae,"<sup>77</sup> "by the very commission of the offense,"<sup>78</sup> and subject to the conditions provided by Canon Law.<sup>79</sup> The Church does not thereby intend to restrict the scope of mercy. Rather, she makes clear the gravity of the crime committed, the irreparable harm done to the innocent who is put to death, as well as to the parents and the whole of society.

CCC2273 The inalienable right to life of every innocent human individual is a constitutive element of a civil society and its legislation:

"The inalienable rights of the person must be recognized and respected by civil society and the political authority. These human rights depend neither on single individuals nor on parents; nor do they represent a concession made by society and the state; they belong to human nature and are inherent in the person by virtue of the creative act from which the person took his origin. Among such fundamental rights one should mention in this regard every human being's right to life and physical integrity from the moment of conception until death."<sup>80</sup>

"The moment a positive law deprives a category of human beings of the protection which civil legislation ought to accord them, the state is denying the equality of all before the law. When the state does not place its power at the service of the rights of each citizen, and in particular of the more vulnerable, the very foundations of a state based on law are undermined. . . . As a consequence of the respect and protection which must be ensured for the unborn child from the moment of conception, the law must provide appropriate penal sanctions for every deliberate violation of the child's rights."<sup>81</sup>
