Fall 2022 Bible Study

ROMANS

Join us as we study Paul's Letter to the Romans this Fall. Although Paul did not find the Church at Rome, he spent the last few years of his life there under house arrest and wrote this longest of his epistles to the Roman Jews. Paul's letter presents the limits of the Law of Moses and the need for salvation through Jesus Christ.

Bible study will take place in the St. Margaret Mary Church Hall from 7:00 until 8:30 pm on 10 consecutive Monday nights starting September 19th and will finish before Thanksgiving.

This study is open to all, regardless of your bible study experience. Newcomers welcome. The study includes a paperback textbook and a questions and answer booklet, a professional video presentation summarizing each lesson, and small group discussion each Monday.

Call Dan Peck at 860-436-5933 to register, or if you have any questions about the study.

A Prayer for Workers

God our Creator,

Your Word worked wonders to create the heavens and the earth and all they contain.

Jesus Christ our Savior and Brother,

You labored alongside your foster father Joseph, living the life of an ordinary worker.

Holy Spirit, we are baptized into your life.

You live and move and have your being in us as we go about our daily tasks.

On this Employee Appreciation Day, may all who work recognize their intrinsic value. Show them that their worth depends not on any task, responsibility, or skill. Remind them that their dignity lies in You, oh Lord.

In all of our labors,

may we remember that we imitate You.

Amen.

Catholic Teaching on Labor

Question:

As we celebrate Labor Day, can you tell me about Catholic teaching regarding labor?

Answer:

One of the most important principles of Catholic social teaching is the dignity of work and the rights of workers. Four encyclicals address this foundational social teaching: Rerum Novarum (1891) by Leo XIII, Quadragesimo Anno (1931) by Pius XI, Laborem Exercens (1981), and Centesimus Annus (1991) by John Paul II. They address both the theology and dignity of work. In Genesis, God takes the initiative in creating the world, calling forth human beings to be faithful stewards of creation. We are thus formed to share in God's continuing creative activity by partnering with God in finishing the world and helping bring it to completion and fulfillment. From this perspective, work can be spiritually understood in terms of sharing in God's ongoing activity to build, create, and transform the world. Human beings are co-creators with God. This vocation demands self-discipline.

Besides an exercise in self-discipline, work is also the means by which we develop and fulfill ourselves. In work, we shape the world and our environment. Through work, we also shape ourselves. Pope John Paul II summarized this point in Laborem Exercens #6, "the value of work is not primarily the kind of work being done, but the fact that the one who is doing it is a person."

Labor Day offers an excellent opportunity to reflect on how we view work in light of our Catholic social teaching. ©LPi

Dear Parishioners,

We have been working on different projects in both churches, SMM and SFA. Some of them have already been successfully completed, all thanks to your generosity and help. Once again, last week we had two major storms. Due to the amount of rain, SMM's basement was flooded three times. We contacted the insurance, but since the drainage pipes are made of clay and have deteriorated, and are original since the church was built, we must cover the costs of this work.

Many of these projects that we must carry out are due to lack of maintenance for the last 4 years, according to the words of the insurance company and the contractors. We want and must keep our churches and their surroundings in good condition. As a Catholic community we must feel blessed and grateful to have two campuses since other communities do not have the opportunity of this great blessing. Let's remember that both church halls are also used for different events, not only parish events, but also for the community in general. If we continue to work and support the parish we will be able to continue growing and living our faith in a worthy place.

May God continue to bless all of you and your families,
Fr. Jorge Castro

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

September 4, 2022 | 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

What virtue is the cornerstone of discipleship? Love. Jesus preached about it, lived it, and summarized his greatest commandment featuring it. Love is in our DNA. To follow Jesus, then, is to follow the path of love. While this may appear to be an attractive and easy option, it most assuredly is not. Authentic love always comes with sacrifice. It is the complete giving of oneself to another. The sacrificial character of love always requires that we leave something aside and pursue something else. This is at the heart of self-denial. Love asks us to make choices that are often difficult.

There is a reason Jesus asks that the love of God come first. "Charity is the right attitude of mind which prefers nothing to the knowledge of God. If a man possesses any strong attachment to the things of this earth, he cannot possess true charity (St. Maximus the Confessor)." "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple." A devoted disciple must be single-minded in the quest for God. We cannot allow anyone or anything to have more power over the soul than God. When any earthly attachments become more important than Love, we can get ourselves into trouble.

The Gospel calls us to walk boldly into the darkness, confusion, and emptiness of the world clothed in the mantle of love. We are asked to walk with others on their journey, offering a supportive, healing, challenging, and faithful presence. Ours is not to judge. To walk this sacrificial journey means that we must put ourselves aside and focus on the needs of others. "A sacrifice to be real must cost, must hurt and must empty ourselves (St. Teresa of Calcutta)." Love helps us walk straight and focus to see things more clearly and help others to do so as well. Many folks struggle to find joy and meaning in life. People may simply need someone with the freedom to sit with them in their pain, so they don't feel so alone. Through acts of kindness, gestures of acceptance, and words of compassion, burdens can be lightened. Believe in God's love and seek it above all other things! ©LPi

Our church choir will be starting up again for the new church year and in preparation for the holiday season. The choir sings every other week and rehearses on Thursdays from 7PM-8:30PM at SMM. Our first rehearsal is on Thursday September 8th at SMM. All are welcome to come join! Please feel free to contact Bobby Dolan with any questions (robert.dolan@uconn.edu).

We have begun using a different version of the sung parts of the Mass (Glory To God, Holy, Amen, Lamb of God). We are introducing "The Mass of Spirit and Grace" which can be found in the hymnals, number 924 thru 932. We hope this reference will encourage all to join us in prayerful singing.
