Saint Luke | October 18

Saint Luke, sometimes called The Evangelist, is the author of the third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles and a physician. There is some debate about how he came to Christianity, though many believe he was a gentile convert. Tradition holds him to be a native of Antioch, Syria, possibly a slave. Most of what we know of Luke comes from Scripture, he was an eloquent and proficient writer, penning with accuracy the events he recounted. He is viewed as one of the best historical sources of the time.

Luke was a close companion of Paul's, joining him at Troas about year 51 and going with him to Macedonia and Philippi. Their paths diverged and met again as they journeyed to spread the Good News. Luke remained with Paul until the latter was martyred in Rome.

Saint Luke's Gospel is viewed as one of social justice, giving special attention to the poor. He also emphasizes gentiles hearing the message of Christ. It is the only Gospel with Mary's Magnificat, and spends the most time illuminating the lives of the other women around Jesus.

Accounts of Luke's death are conflicting, some say he was martyred shortly after Paul others that he lived a long life completing his Gospel in Greece and dying at 84. He is the patron saint of physicians.

40 Days for Life:

The 40 Days for Life runs from September 28 - November 6. During the 40 Days for Life, all Monday Adorations will be in memory of the preborn and other pro-life issues.

Birthright:

We were given 500 bottles to raise money for Birthright. If every family remembers to take one bottle and donate $1-$2, we will raise between $500-$1000 to help Birthright do their blessed work for women who are pregnant or think they may be pregnant. That would be AMAZING and very appreciated. Please return your bottle to either church by November 6th.

Fun Facts: By 27 weeks, baby is the size of a head of cauliflower, and it is the last week of the second trimester. From 17 to 27 weeks, baby's bones are hardening, movements may be felt as flutters and by week 21 full on kicks. Baby's senses are developing, and baby can swallow. Wrinkled skin is filling out with baby fat, and baby's hair is starting to come in. Baby is inhaling and exhaling amniotic fluid getting ready for the first breath when born. At 27 weeks, baby sleeps and wakes on a regular schedule, and baby's brain is very active. Baby's lungs could function outside the womb with medical help. What a beautiful miracle this is! (Source: Fetal Development Week by Week by Kate Marple)

Save the Date: March for Life in DC is scheduled for January 19 -20, 2023. More information will follow.

Thank you to everyone who prayed for the pre-born and prayed to end abortion. Whether you prayed with us in West Hartford on October 1st or at home, your prayers are important and appreciated.

ST. JUNIPERO SERRA PARISH

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 16, 2022 | 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Brendan wouldn't stop. He continued nagging his mom to let him have a little more time with his phone. He knew the rules but wanted to finish a game and text a few more friends. He begged, had a temper tantrum, pleaded, screamed, pouted, and used every means he could think of to get Mom to change her mind. Mom had a busy day and was tired. At first, she held her ground. Then, her son's persistence got the best of her, and she caved. "Brendan, you can have 30 more minutes and no more!" she retorted. Brendan's determination paid off. He won.

Is this how it works with God too? If we want something enough and feel it is our due, does our persistence allow us to eventually get our way? Judging God by human standards, it would seem so. But is this the way God works? It gets a bit confusing when Jesus tells his disciples to "pray always without becoming weary" and then further tells them how God will "secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night." If we catch God at the right time, when he's having a weak moment, then our tenacity ought to pay off. What we want, we will get. Really? Sadly, the way many approach prayer suggests that this is precisely how it goes.

Good parents set boundaries and offer proper discipline. They learn the art of being steadfast when presented with determined minds and wills. They know what is best and, at times, have to say "no." God is always there with His full attention and unconditional love showering itself upon us. God also knows what is best. And, as with any good parent, the one constant that is always available and never withheld is love. We can be as persistent and determined as we want if what we are seeking is God's love. We are never a bother and requests for God's love are never denied. This is the prayer of the heart. Desiring God alone and not only what we want God to do for us places this love relationship foremost in our minds, hearts, and souls. God is never bothered by this prayer. As we breathe in and exhale out, the Divine Life freely flows.

INCREASE YOUR FAITH Come to our Cenacle which meets every other Tuesday night. Our next meeting will be on Tuesday,

October 18th at 7:00pm at SMM Chapel. For more information call Mike Cianciolo 860-604-1745.
