THANKSGIVING MASS
Thursday, November 24 | at 8:00 am
at St. Margaret Mary Church

Thanksgiving Prayer

This Thanksgiving, let us remember all the good things, and people, who have come into our lives. We focus on thanking each one who has helped us, and ultimately thank God for the good gifts of this world.

Let us pray...

God our Father,

Graciously accept from your humble people a thankful heart and spirit.

Everything we have and are able to share with others

ultimately comes from your love of your creations.

Often we think that everything we have is our own creation;

we ask you this day to create in us a spirit of gratitude,

that we may always know

that all good gifts come from you.

We ask this through Christ our brother, in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

In observance of Thanksgiving, our office will be closed Thursday, November 24 & Friday, November 25.

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

When you love what you have, you have everything you need. Giving thanks to God is the key that turns problems into blessings, darkness into light, and the unexpected into the best gifts. Today we celebrate that God is good, because he has provided us with daily bread, strength in our hearts, light and comfort, blessing and happiness. During these days of joy and gratitude, let's take advantage of every second, every minute we have to enjoy the people we love and the moments of happiness we share with them. While life moves fast and unexpectedly, let's be thankful for what we have here today.

God has always been generous with us in many ways, let us be generous and grateful to all those who are part of our lives and our own stories. May this Thanksgiving Day move us to appreciate every blessing in our lives. When we count our blessings, all of our lives become a prayer of love and thanks. Thank you for your faith, your prayers and support to the parish.

Happy Thanksgiving!
May God bless you all.
Rev. Jorge E. Castro

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 20, 2022

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

It's not unreasonable to think that if God wanted to make a statement he could do so in a very dramatic way. After all, he spoke through a burning bush that didn't actually burn, parted the Red Sea, sent manna to the Israelites from the sky, cured lepers, healed the sick and cast out demons. All of that is pretty dramatic stuff, and they made statements! Now, Jesus hangs dying on a cross. He has been referred to as a king. Considering all of the miracles Jesus did in his short time on earth, isn't one more in order? If Jesus came down off of the cross, defied death, and parted the waters of suffering and death, onlookers, believers and unbelievers alike, would take notice. It would prove who God is and show us what God wants us to do. Or would it?

Great spiritual masters remind us not to focus on miracles or consolations received from God. They can distract us. Doing anything other than what Jesus did would distract humanity as well, misplacing our focus. It's not about a miracle, at least not the dramatic kind people are eager to see. It's about something more profound. It all goes back to where it began for the earthly Jesus. God becomes one with humanity in Jesus Christ. All that goes into being human is holy and blessed, and that becomes a place where God is born, again and again. God, through Jesus, tells us to hold firm to all of the experiences of being human, the joys and the wonders, the disappointments and the failures.

God's lesson is found in Jesus' vulnerability. It is only when we are vulnerable that we learn how to love. When Jesus breathed his last, God's unconditional and tender love was realized. Jesus always had a soft spot for the weak, lost, vulnerable, and broken. God wants us to come to Him freely, not because we have witnessed some fantastic display of prowess. God desires that we find Him through who we are, as our hearts and souls direct. This will mean that our love is authentic as it will be born of the heartache, pain, and turmoil that are a part of life. The fragments of our lives need to be made whole. Our fragmented king, Jesus Christ, is the only one who can help put the pieces together. ©LPi

A Gratitude Examen

Gratitude is one of the greatest spiritual practices. It opens our minds, calms our hearts, and rids bitterness of its power. The "examen" is a spiritual practice to reflect on how we have responded to God's work in our lives. This Thanksgiving, consider your own reasons for thankfulness!

- What Gifts have You given me?
- How have I Received love from others?
- How is grace at work in Aspects of my life story?
- Do I Trust You to continue to bless me?
- Where have I missed Your movements?
- Have I used my Talents at the service of other?
- Do I see a purpose for my life Underway?
- How can I have the Discipline to thank You daily?
- Help me give Everything back to You! ©LPi
