Christmas Gifts

Question:

Why do we give gifts at Christmas?

Answer:

Great events in and of themselves are not tangible. They occur in life but leave no mark behind, nothing that someone could come across and know that something significant occurred. So we mark the event with monuments, holidays, gold watches or plaques, making a meaningful event tangible and memorable.

Gifts at Christmas do the same thing. They mark the occasion of the birth of Jesus, communicating a bit of the joy of the day by allowing us to be both giver and receiver. Gift-giving sets aside the day as special and different. The special foods, customs, decorations, and gifts all help focus our attention on the importance and meaning of the day and at the same time allow us to share personally in its joy and happiness.

In giving gifts, though, we can share in the meaning of Christmas in a significant way. We imitate God in sharing with others. We give a bit of ourselves to others in the gifts we give, just as God gives us the gift of his Son. No wonder we often say that the best gifts are those that come from the heart. Given in love, these presents are wrapped in the best covering of all. ©LPi

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Christmas is a word full of mystery. Christmas is a manifestation of the greatness of God in the smallness of man. Christmas is the embodiment of LOVE in the heart of man. Christmas is the home where hope is born. Christmas is the option of love for the poorest. Christmas is the beginning of salvation for every person. Our Christmas celebration would not be good if we did not believe more and better in our brothers and sisters. In every person there is something good. If we do not know how to appreciate it, it is because we do not have the same faith in man that God had when he incarnated.

Happy are those who have a simple, clean and poor heart because God is for them. Happy are those who feel the need for God because God can still be born in their lives. Happy are those who, in the midst of the hustle and bustle of these holidays, know how to welcome with a believing and grateful heart the gift of a Child God. For them it will be Christmas.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Rev. Jorge E. Castro

Thank you and Merry Christmas to the parishioners of St. Junipero Serra Parish! With your generous assistance in December, St. Vincent de Paul Society provided gifts and gift cards for infants, toddlers, children of all ages and teenagers at Our Lady Queen of Peace and Our Lady of Sorrows Parishes in Hartford. Additionally with your generous contributions to our monthly food collection, we provided food to local families in need, Head Start Families in Vernon, DCF Families in Manchester and the emergency pantry to St. Ann's Church in Hartford.

Christmas & Red Skies

Across the sky, striations of red bring our gaze to awe through windows of spectacular color - drawing us to remember Advent - The coming of Christ - Red and white like Candy canes - to remind us of the blood he would shed, and the shape of a J like Jesus or a Shepherd's hook to guide us like the Good Shepherd. Has the meaning been lost? Do we remember the Nativity - The birth of Jesus this Christmas season? Are we guided by the Star and find him at Mass and in our hearts?

O Come let us adore him in the Eucharist at Mass this Christmas.

CCC524 When the Church celebrates the liturgy of Advent each year, she makes present this ancient expectancy of the Messiah, for by sharing in the long preparation for the Savior's first coming, the faithful renew their ardent desire for his second coming. By celebrating the precursor's birth and martyrdom, the Church unites herself to his desire: "He must increase, but I must decrease."

The Christmas Mystery

525 Jesus was born in a humble stable, into a poor family. Simple shepherds were the first witnesses to this event. In this poverty heaven's glory was made manifest. The Church never tires of singing the glory of this night:

The Virgin today brings into the world the Eternal
And the earth offers a cave to the Inaccessible.
The angels and shepherds praise him
And the magi advance with the star,
For you are born for us, Little Child, God eternal!

CCC526 To become a child in relation to God is the condition for entering the kingdom. For this, we must humble ourselves and become little. Even more: to become "children of God" we must be "born from above" or "born of God". Only when Christ is formed in us will the mystery of Christmas be fulfilled in us. Christmas is the mystery of this "marvelous exchange":

O marvelous exchange! Man's Creator has become man, born of the Virgin. We have been made sharers in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share our humanity.

"Arise, all ye nobles and peasants; Mary invites all, rich and poor, just and sinners, to enter the cave of Bethlehem, to adore and to kiss the feet of her new-born Son...Let us enter; let us not be afraid." St. Alphonsus Liguori

"Whoever really takes this (the Eucharist) as his daily bread, experiences EACH DAY the mystery of Christmas, the Word made flesh." Saint T. Benedicta, Edith Stein

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

December 25, 2022 | The Nativity of the Lord

As we age, time seems to pass more quickly. Years seemingly fly by as one holiday flows into the next, January quickly becomes December and life maintains its hectic pace. What do we accomplish in all of that busyness? Perhaps technology is responsible for some of the frenzy, keeping us isolated in our social media worlds, communicating through texts rather than in person, and always connected to world events. We're over stimulated in many ways by information, noise, opinions, and ideologies. Yet, we still find the time to decorate our homes, purchase gifts, and plan Christmas gatherings. We know, however, that the true meaning of Christmas is not found in twinkling lights, beautifully adorned trees, perfectly set tables or exchanged gifts. We are being called to something deeper and more authentic.

Christmas reminds us to look for God along the way of our lives and not get distracted by the illusions around us. Our world's complexity can leave us feeling displaced, desperate, alone, neglected, and unimportant. Joseph and Mary felt that way too. In the midst of all that captures and intrigues us in our self-created virtual worlds, is this longing for the anchor of faith to keep us grounded and make sense of it all. Only faith can give us the perspective to see what truly matters in life. We discover our divinely blessed humanity. The uncertain and challenging journey to Bethlehem gives way to the tender moments of birth and its embrace. Christmas softens us and slows us down a bit. It shows us Jesus as the light who enlightens everyone. It shows us the truth.

The faith that comes from Christmas calms our fears and allows us to go into the nighttime of our lives courageously. We are never lost or alone. We need to stop and savor more of life's moments before they slip away in time. God is with us, loving us, and leading us where we need to be. God is born again and again in every soul willing to give birth to His presence. God connects us and provides us with a place where we feel safe and welcome: home. Merry Christmas! ©LPi

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood

Heavenly Father, You have created us for a definite purpose.

Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for each of us in this life, and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make my parish, my home and my heart fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations to the priesthood of Jesus Christ. May our young men respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among them a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests.

We make our prayer for priestly vocations to You, Father, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Our newly formed bi-monthly Men's Prayer Group to let God encourage a deeper personal understanding of his message to us.
