GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was a young seminarian, I asked a wise old priest how to pray better. He said simply, "Don't lie when you pray." He helped me to see how much energy I waste in trying to appear acceptable to God when I pray. For me, prayer was showing off for God and hiding what was ugly.

It's stunning that the Gospel of Matthew tells us of Jesus, "He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulon and Naphtali..." This isn't just the Lord's relocation up north. It's his moving into places of shame and defeat. This region was where the enemy invasion of Israel began centuries before. Jesus left the comfortable confines of Nazareth and sought out a place of darkness, not to bring shame, but to announce the dawning of his light.

When we pray, we usually prefer Jesus to stay put in our little Nazareths — where we feel comfortable, successful, and in control. But he moves. He re-locates into the Zebulons and Naphtalis of our shame, embarrassment, fear, and sense of being defeated. The question for us is: will we allow him to take up residence in those places in our prayer time? Will we talk to him honestly about our places of darkness? If we do, we're no longer lying when we pray.

— Father John Muir

On those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death light has arisen.

From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

- Mt 4:16b-17

St. Paul, named Saul at his circumcision, a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin, was born at Tarsus, the capitol of Cilicia. He was a Roman citizen. He was brought up as a strict Jew, and later became a violent persecutor of the Christians. While on his way to Damascus to make new arrests of Christians, he was suddenly converted by a miraculous apparition of Our Lord. From a fierce persecutor he became the great Apostle of the Gentiles. He made three missionary journeys which brought him to the great centers of Asia Minor and southern Europe, and made many converts. Fourteen of his Epistles are found in the New Testament. He was beheaded in Rome around 66 A.D., and his relics are in the Basilica of St. Paul Outside-the-Walls near the Ostian Way.

From FAITH FORMATION OFFICE

Calling all Saint Junipero Serra 7th-12th graders.

Our Parish Youth Group is forming!

Build on your Catholic Faith, Friends, Fun, and Food. Our group will meet once a month for a couple hours. Work the Winter ho-hums away and have some team building events with your friends. We will have events like Catholic Family Bingo, Pizza Parties and Winter Olympic Games that will remind us of Saint Paul - who writes "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith". These and many more will take us through winter and into the early spring where we will find joy in our faith in each season, body, mind, and spirit.

Our 11th grade recently confirmed and 12th graders, are invited to join us as Team Leaders for the Parish Youth Group. We are happy to provide you with letters of recommendation for your help.

Join your friends for these fun and food evenings once a month. Our first meeting will be on Sunday, January 22nd. Class time details will be shared at your faith formation classes and on our parish website.

Run, jump, shout, but do not sin.

St. John Bosco

We have seen in the eyes of empty nesters, and loving sighs of the old, whenever children are brought to Mass. We do not even have to ask them what they are thinking, sometimes they will say it. Enjoy it! Or Time flies! - But us, the harried parents usually brush it aside as we hurriedly fill an empty pew toward the back, so as not to distract anyone.

But interiorly we know as C.S. Lewis said, "Children are not a distraction from more important work, they are the most important work." Jesus has told us the same!

Blessing of the Children - Matthew 19:13-15

Then children were brought to him that he might lay his hands on them and pray. The disciples rebuked them, but Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." After he placed his hands on them, he went away.

Time Flies

I returned by highway,
A blur of sound, change, and passerbys,
It was almost hard to believe that I,
Had traveled there before,
Only to have come by,
Back roads and backdoors -
It was more silent then,
And time a peaceful friend,
And change was slow.
And children growing,
though still holding my hand.
Then,
Fear was in front,
Not behind me,
The highway seemed to scream,
fear was beside me now,
I needed to silence the space to understand,
The rate of things,
Where I had been,
Where I was going.

It was as the older folk used to say,
About passing years colliding at rapid speeds,
Ohhh hold on to these!
they prophesized,
To deaf ears of the young like mine were,
In a common space, they told me the tale,
You drove today by back roads,
Do not be fooled by my seemingly snail-paced walk,
I came by highway road,
A blur of sound, change, and passerbys,
Hold on to the time of holding children's hands,
for when they told me, I did not understand,
And I dreamed of being a highwayman,
And there is no way to travel by back roads anymore.

"The Eucharist is my highway to heaven." To always be close to Jesus, that's my life plan. I'm happy to die because I've lived my life without wasting even a minute of it doing things that wouldn't have pleased God. "I offer all the suffering I will have to suffer for the Lord, for the Pope, and the Church." - Blessed Carlo Acutis

"Let nothing perturb you, nothing frighten you. All things pass. God does not change.
Patience achieves everything." - St Teresa of Avila

"LOVE YOUR CHILDREN. IN THEM YOU CAN SEE BABY JESUS." - St. Gianna Molla

"To go to Mass together will be the light of Sunday for a family." - Pope Benedict XVI
