LENT 2023

Bible Study

GALATIANS

Join us as we study Paul's Letter to the Galatians this Lent. Paul wrote follow-up instructions to a people he had visited on a missionary journey, having preached to them, gained converts to Christianity, and founded churches among them. Galatia was a Roman region in what today is Turkey.

Bible study will take place in the St Margaret Mary Church Hall from 7:00 until 8:30 pm on 5 consecutive Monday nights starting February 27 and will finish before Easter. This study is open to all, regardless of your bible study experience. Newcomers welcome. The study includes a paperback textbook and a questions and answer booklet, a professional video presentation summarizing each lesson, and small group discussion each Monday.

Call Dan Peck at 860-436-5933 to register, or if you have any questions about the study.

First 15 teens who bring their $50 deposit will have $100 taken off their Steubenville fee. The $50 check is due Feb. 12 so we can register early enough to get the closest hotels. After that, $20 a week, beginning the week of Feb. 17, is due for only 10 weeks to complete the total cost by early May. All checks are to be made out to St. Junipero Serra Parish. Checks can be made out bimonthly for $40 each time and given to

Sr. Karen when you have classes if you prefer.

Again, any teen wanting to come, but financially unable to meet the cost, please let us know and we will try to find you a sponsor.

Questions? Email,

Sr. Karen - ConfirmationCoordinatorSJS@gmail.com or
Anton Miranda - StJuniperoSerra@gmail.com

It may be unlikely in our life in the United States that we will be martyred for our faith, but it is increasingly probable that we will be faced with moral dilemmas that our conscience will not allow for us to ignore. The Church calls the people who die to the esteem and opportunities of the world white martyrs. Though they do not shed blood there is a dying to one's self in order to honor God.

The Cold with You

Poetry lives outside, lingering, waiting to be discovered, like You –
It rises and surges the heart to the swaying of winter trees –
And gray skies –
That may delight with white flakes – Like You-

My soul surged and searched peering through windows-
My shoulders covered in a shawl –
I did not commit to its drawing power,
Because it was cold outside-

Like You – call me
I remember the tales that create faith
– terror, cold, and no shawl –
But reflection from the window
– poetry sings a new song –

And I wonder if I will ever dare to go outside in the cold with You!

have an obligation to manifest the new man which they have put on in Baptism and to reveal the power of the Holy Spirit by whom they were strengthened at Confirmation. 270

2473 Martyrdom is the supreme witness given to the truth of the faith: it means bearing witness even unto death. The martyr bears witness to Christ who died and rose, to whom he is united by charity. He bears witness to the truth of the faith and of Christian doctrine. He endures death through an act of fortitude. "Let me become the food of the beasts, through whom it will be given me to reach God."271

2474 The Church has painstakingly collected the records of those who persevered to the end in witnessing to their faith. These are the acts of the Martyrs. They form the archives of truth written in letters of blood:

Neither the pleasures of the world nor the kingdoms of this age will be of any use to me. It is better for me to die [in order to unite myself] to Christ Jesus than to reign over the ends of the earth. I seek him who died for us; I desire him who rose for us. My birth is approaching. . .272

I bless you for having judged me worthy from this day and this hour to be counted among your martyrs. . . . You have kept your promise, God of faithfulness and truth. For this reason and for everything, I praise you, I bless you, I glorify you through the eternal and heavenly High Priest, Jesus Christ, your beloved Son. Through him, who is with you and the Holy Spirit, may glory be given to you, now and in the ages to come. Amen.273

It is not the pain but the purpose that makes a martyr.- Saint Augustine

"In difficult moment I will fix my gaze upon the silent heart of Jesus, Stretched upon the cross, and from the exploding flames of his merciful heart, Will flow down upon me power and strength to keep fighting" - Saint Faustina

If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. But let none of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler. Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. 1 Peter 4:14-16

"If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you .- John 15:18
