STEWARDSHIP

Total Offertory including Online Giving:
3/12/2023 Weekly Collection $11,419.00
These numbers will fluctuate due to monthly and quarterly donations.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!
This week our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection.

SHARING SUCCESS

Most people in Turkana, Kenya raise livestock, and a few are farmers, but the hot and dry climate makes this work difficult and climate change is making it even harder. Rebecca and Lotiang participated in a Catholic Relief Services program that installed a water well and taught them new farming techniques. They can support their family with their crops and are teaching others in their community what they learned. How can you use your skills and knowledge to help others? Visit csrricebowl.org to learn more.

The Archbishop's Annual Appeal helps provide the critical funding needed to feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, counsel those in despair, offer much-needed assistance to the unemployed, and make medical care available to those without health insurance. Your gift to the 2023 Appeal will help to continue these and other vital ministries, services, and programs that reach out to so many in need.

EARLY BULLETIN DEADLINES

We have early transmission deadlines. Bulletin articles must be received no later than noon Wednesday, March 22nd for Sunday, April 2nd, Wednesday, March 29th for Sunday, April 9th. Please Email your submissions to: bulletin@southwindsor.cc

The STVP March food collection will take place 3/25 & 3/26/2023. Grocery bags for the March 2023 food collection will be distributed this week-end. Local clients, families, Head Start families in Vernon, DCF families in Manchester and St. Ann's Church in Hartford will benefit from your generosity.

WINTER SNOW POLICY

Weekdays: When school is canceled or delayed there will be NO Morning Mass.
Weekends: Please check our website, or Facebook page for possible cancellation.

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

As I mentioned before, there is something I really do not like to do in my ministry and it is to talk about money and finances since a lot of people are struggling with their own or family issues. This week-end everyone is receiving the finance report of the parish. It has been only through the generosity of many of you that we are still able to maintain both churches, but the reality in the finances area of the parish changed drastically this last year and we need to do something different about it. There are approximately 600 families who donate regularly to the parish. A $1 increase in giving per week would increase revenue by $31,200. A $3 increase per week would increase revenue by $93,600 and a $5 increase would increase revenue by $156,000. Any increase in weekly giving would be greatly appreciated and help offset our operating loss!

One of the reasons for the financial loss is that there are fewer parishioners attending Mass now as compared to 2019, the year before the pandemic. Based on October counts, there were 1,069 attendees at weekend Mass in 2019 compared with 646 in 2021 and 759 in 2022. Revenue (weekly, monthly and holy days) for the same years were $824k in 2019, $652k in 2021 and $683k in 2022.

Once again, I am very grateful for your kindness and generosity for YOUR PARISH. I ask God to bless all of you with and to multiply his blessings in your lives. Thank you for your support and your prayers.

May God bless you!
Rev. Jorge E. Castro

SO WE DO NOT LOSE HEART

When my son was two years old we discovered that he had a food allergy to eggs. His skin broke out in uncomfortable red eczema and he would scratch frantically until he bled. We learned of a specialty food store that sold cookies without eggs and so my husband and I set out on a trip to get some. We were so excited to give it to him that we gave it to him in the car.

I remember I turned around to smile at him and watch him enjoy eating his cookie only to find that his entire face had swelled up! We rushed to the hospital and found out that not only did he have an allergy to eggs, but he also had life-threatening allergies to nuts, which were one of the ingredients in the new eggless cookie.

After he had recovered, my husband and I conferred on the irony! We had made a special trip to find an eggless cookie so that he would not get sick and instead we came face to face with an even bigger problem. We probably said something like, Isn't that the way it goes when you try to do something good, or why did we even try?

Our faith journey can look like that sometimes too. How many times have I made a resolution to stop committing one of my faults? Even altered what I am doing, what I am watching, or who I am with, only to find myself face to face with a bigger problem. We can convince ourselves that once we start trying to be better that it will be smooth sailing. Once I fix this problem there could not and will not be another on the horizon.

It is easy to get discouraged and make strange calculations that say if we give up we can avoid all of our problems altogether, even though we know this isn't true at all. Surely if we had not gone out of our way to buy a special cookie, we would have discovered sooner or later that he had this problem. Maybe it was a mercy to discover it when we did. We were already in the car, with the foot on the gas ready to speed him right to the Emergency Room.

Eventually I learned to make cookies with applesauce instead of eggs and since there was such a need, a few years later, someone began selling egg-free and nut-free cookies in most supermarkets. My son has an epi-pen now just in case he accidentally eats a nut, which has still happened a few times, even with our cautious vigilance.

And so it is with the faith, we practice, we stumble, we fall sometimes, but learn little by little to be better and we can find tools to help us grow. If we do fall into one of our old faults or a new one, we always have the Sacrament of Reconciliation, where Jesus can wipe our souls clean so that we can start fresh again.

So if you find yourself discouraged by a recent waterfall of unfortunate events do not make the same mistake that I did. Don't say, *isn't that the way it goes when you try to do something good, or why did I even try? But instead, try and remember a time, when it looked like it was all falling apart, and then remember how it actually turned out for the better in the end-maybe it even made you stronger.

It is not those who commit the least faults who are the most holy, but those who have the greatest courage, the greatest generosity, the greatest love, who make the boldest efforts to overcome themselves, and are not immediately apprehensive about tripping. Saint Francis de Sales

There is no one who is without faults, and who is not in some way a burden to others, whether he is a superior or a subject, an old man or a young one, a scholar or a dunce.-St. Robert Bellarmine

"So we do not lose heart. Though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed every day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, because we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen; for the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal." 2 Corinthians 4:16-18
