HAPPY
Mother's Day

A Mother's Day Prayer

Loving God, You have loved us with an everlasting love (Jer 31:3)

You have loved us even more as a mother loved her child. Today, we give you thanks and praise for the gift of mothers.

We pray for the mothers-to-be, who are just beginning to be the bearers of new life in them, may they welcome their forthcoming child with loving anticipation and joy.

We pray for the young mothers, may they cherish their child with tender care and unconditional love.

We pray for the mothers who are separated from their children because of war, poverty, conflict, violence and for any other reasons. Comfort them, strengthen their hope, and let them feel your loving embrace that wipes every tear away.

We pray for all mother-figures, those who have loved, surrounded, and shaped us with motherly care and compassion.

We especially pray for our own mothers who have nurtured and cared for us. Their sacrifices and care gave us a glimpse of the extent of your love for us. Thank you for them. Grant health, blessings, and well-being for those our mothers who are still alive.

We also remember those mothers who are no longer with us. While they live forever in our hearts and memory grant them eternal rest and reward of their labors.
Amen.

Hello to my friends at St. Junipero Serra Parish, this is Deacon Sean Yates and I am excited to announce that I have received a call from Archbishop Leonard Blair to receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders to the Priesthood. I will receive this Sacrament at a Mass on June 24, 2023 at St. Joseph's Cathedral in Hartford. The ceremony will begin at 11 AM. All are invited to this ceremony. I should also note that this ceremony will be for myself and Deacon Andres Galeano. Archbishop Blair will be the main celebrant and there will be many concelebrating Bishops and Priests. In addition, I will also be offering my First Mass at St. Margaret Mary's Church at 11 AM on Sunday, June 25, 2023. All are welcome to this celebration of the Mass. I hope many of you will be able to attend and I thank you for your prayers over my time in formation. You remain in my prayers everyday.

God Bless,
Deacon Sean Yates

May is for Mary – But what does that have to do with us?

Mother of God and My Mother!

‘Mary, Mother of Jesus, please be a mother to me now.’

I must admit – this prayer has never failed me.”

Mother Teresa

Paintings, Photographs, and Pictures

Paintings, photographs, and pictures, have long given expression to families and their love for each other. In each of our homes, our walls hold the family portrait even if we still have all of the members of our family with us. Even if we see them every day. We surround ourselves with these smiles and memories. They hold us and carry us through good times and difficult times. They remind us of our love for each other.

So too we should remember Our Holy Family in Heaven. God the Father, the Blessed Mother our Mother. Saint Joseph - Protector of families. Jesus our Brother. There are countless beautiful pictures and paintings to choose from. The Holy Family is with us every day. Walking the road we walk here on earth. Let their faces, and love adorn our walls. Let them remind us that we are not alone.

Life

In the midst of pain,
As my heart winced in silence,
There was springtime as before,
There were memories we made then,
There was love, kisses, and smiles.
In the midst of pain and sorrow,
There was summertime, And the ocean,

There were birthdays, There was life.
In the stillness of a photograph,
Captured in the light,
Grasping at the string, Before I blew away,
Reminding me in its simple-ness,
As my soul would pray, That in the midst of pain,
There is life.

Humanity in every age, and even today, looks to works of art to shed light upon its path and its destiny. Saint Pope John Paul II

The true work of art is but a shadow of the divine perfection. Michelangelo

CCC2501 Created "in the image of God," man also expresses the truth of his relationship with God the Creator by the beauty of his artistic works. Indeed, art is a distinctively human form of expression; beyond the search for the necessities of life which is common to all living creatures, art is a freely given superabundance of the human being's inner riches. Arising from talent given by the Creator and from man's own effort, art is a form of practical wisdom, uniting knowledge and skill, to give form to the truth of reality in a language accessible to sight or hearing. To the extent that it is inspired by truth and love of beings, art bears a certain likeness to God's activity in what he has created. Like any other human activity, art is not an absolute end in itself, but is ordered to and ennobled by the ultimate end of man.

CCC2502 Sacred art is true and beautiful when its form corresponds to its particular vocation: evoking and glorifying, in faith and adoration, the transcendent mystery of God - the surpassing invisible beauty of truth and love visible in Christ, who "reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature," in whom "the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily."297 This spiritual beauty of God is reflected in the most holy Virgin Mother of God, the angels, and saints. Genuine sacred art draws man to adoration, to prayer, and to the love of God, Creator and Savior, the Holy One and Sanctifier.
