HELP US CELEBRATE
THE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

Christmas Mass Intentions cards will be on sale starting November 18th till Saturday December 23rd, before and after all Masses. Cards will be sold by the CCD or Confirmation Youth. Card front artwork was done by children of the parish as part of the Knights of Columbus Christmas poster project. The 11am Mass at St. Margaret Mary will be offered for the intentions of those receiving cards. Intentions may be for anyone, living, deceased, ill, homebound etc. and may be sent to family, friends or yourself as part of Christmas.

Enclosed is a form which allows for up to 5 names per card. The back cover informs the recipient of Mass celebration with intention on their behalf. All forms will be placed on the altar Christmas Day for 11am Mass.

THANKSGIVING
FOOD COLLECTION

The Thanksgiving food collection will take place on 11/18 and 11/19 for many local families, and others served by Head Start Program in Vernon, Dept. of Children and Families and Community Child Guidance Clinic in Manchester and St. Lawrence O'Toole's church pantry that serves 300 families in Hartford. Grocery bags will be handed out after each Mass Nov. 11 and 12.

Currently we need full-sized blankets and sheets. If you are able to help, please put the new or clean bagged sheets and blankets in our canvas bins at the St. Margaret Mary church main entrance.

Looking for a way to help us help others?

- Hand our empty grocery bags after Masses Nov. 11 or 12 for the Thanksgiving food collection
- Help sort the Thanksgiving grocery donations at St. Margaret Mary church hall on Sunday, Nov. 19 between 9:30 am and noon
- Roll a bin full of donated items from the main entrance at St. Margaret Mary to the garage for storage after 4:00 pm Mass on Saturdays or 11:00 am Mass on Sundays – check in with Joe or Catherine or an usher if you are able to assist.

Join a group of volunteers to sort donations on occasional Monday mornings at 9 am in the St. Margaret Mary church hall.

Email president@societyhelpline.org if you would like to know more about these or other ways to volunteer with the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Have kitchen items or good used furniture to share? Please post your donation at www.societyhelpline.org Need help or know someone else who needs help? Post a request for assistance on our website www.societyhelpline.org or call 860 648-0216.

BUY A BRICK

The Pastors Memorial Garden

Thank you to all who have sent in your brick orders. There is still plenty of time left to order a brick for the Pastors Memorial Garden! Brochures describing the project are available at the entrances of both churches.

If you have not placed an order, we now have an online tool to make it easier. Log onto www.bricksrus.com/donorsite/sjs and enter all the information. Directions are on the web page. It is recommended that capital letters are used, but lower-case letters are accepted. The letters automatically get centered on the brick.

Also, you can add an icon or a symbol to your brick for an additional $10. Those can be found on the above webpage. Directions are included there as well. If you have already placed an order and would like to include a symbol or logo and/ or if you have any other questions, please contact Mary Leslie at 860 614-5011 or MJL61@aol.com

Thank you for your support of the Birthright Bottle Drive. The amount donated will be in the bulletin shortly. Sometimes you may think that your positive actions supporting life are inconsequential. You may ask, how can one person make a difference? This article may give you a different perspective on those thoughts.

How to Become First Rate (abridged) by Dr. Donald DeMarco

Arthur Rubinstein begins his lengthy autobiography by paying tribute to his Aunt Salomea Meyer. Mrs. Rubinstein had given birth to six children. It would be eight years before she would conceive her seventh. Given her situation, it may be understandable that she was reluctant to give birth to a seventh child. The distinguished pianist writes: “I was utterly unwanted by my parents, and if it hadn’t been for the enthusiastic persuasion of my Aunt Salomea Meyer, my intrusion into this valley of suffering might have been prevented”.

Rubinstein went on to become a first-rate pianist, one of the most celebrated of his century. By contrast, his aunt remains in the eyes of the modern world as invisible as a guardian angel. This is a rich and dramatic irony, Rubinstein played the piano, his aunt saved his life. Which was more important? To the secular mind, Rubinstein’s life was first-rate. He dazzled the music world with his astonishing talent, spoke eight languages, hobnobbed with celebrities, and was admired by millions. Yet, none of this would have transpired except for the persuasive influence of his life-saving aunt. There can be life without music; but there cannot be music without life.

Perhaps society has it backwards. Being first-rate is an encomium that belongs to people who understand the dignity and importance of life and form little communities of love. Let the celebrities, experts, specialists, jetsetters, VIPs, and CEOs have their “second-rate” pursuits. “First-rate” pursuits belong to those humble individuals who live by the Golden Rule, serve God, and love their neighbor. They need neither fame nor publicity. Their reward is not to be found in awards or in trophies but in their joy.

The paradox of the person whose life is “first-rate” is that he does not seek that identification. It is a consequence of living his life authentically, which is to say, living a life of love. I am therefore inclined to think that Aunt Salomea’s life was “first-rate,” though, no doubt, no such thought ever entered her mind. We can thank her, nonetheless, for the prodigy whose life she saved. We can thank her for having a clear appreciation of the importance of every human life, even those who reside in the womb and are devoid of any social status. We can thank her for convincing her sister, Mrs. Rubinstein that she should act as a mother.

We human beings all have the same Creator and the same nature. No one is self-generated. We all owe our existence to another. Therefore, we should always be attuned to the needs of others. And this is the simple formula for a “first-rate” life.
