WE EXTEND A WARM WELCOME TO ALL VISITORS, NEW MEMBERS, AS WELL AS ALL PARISH MEMBERS.

Every year on January 1, the Solemnity of Mary, our Mother, the Holy Father marks the World Day of Peace with a special message inviting all people to reflect on the important work of building peace. And so, we pray:

Mary, Mother of God, mother of all, who bore and raised the Son of God, who sought to bring peace into the world. You treasured all you saw in your heart, as the fruit of your womb poured out love and mercy to each of us in our own personal way. Pray for us and be with us, that we may remember that we are also treasured in your heart. Help us to always remind others that they are just as treasured, that the world may know a true and just peace. Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I remember the first time my older sister asked me if I wanted to hold her newborn son. Terrified, I told her I didn't think it was a good idea. My résumé had nothing to suggest I would be a qualified baby holder. But she warmly told me, "I'll help you hold him." It struck me that she is baby's mother. She is the one who decides who is qualified to hold him. I took him in my arms and soon I began to feel comfortable with that tiny little warm cooing creature in my arms, and soon I no longer feared holding him. Now, twenty-seven nieces and nephews later, holding a newborn child is one of the great joys of my life.

Do we sometimes think that Jesus is given only to the highly qualified, special religious people? In the Gospel of Luke today we hear about the presentation of the Lord in the temple. The newborn son of God is passed around like a baton in a relay race, not guarded like a precious jewel or a breakable china dish. We can see him going from the arms of Mary to Joseph, then to the priest performing the ceremony, then to Simeon the old man, then to Anna the old widow. Each one receiving him and then handing him to the next. A tidal wave of joy and thanksgiving follows wherever he is placed.

Believe me, you are qualified to hold Jesus in your arms. How can I say that with such confidence? Because the mother decides who is qualified. The Blessed Virgin, embodied in the Church, holds him out to you and me. She rejoices to place him in our arms to hold, and to hand him on, too.

— Father John Muir

Why do we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family?

This feast day honors Jesus, the Blessed Mother, and St. Joseph as the holiest of families, and therefore a model for all Christians families. They were holy because they placed God at the center of their family life, they loved and sacrificed for one another, and they radiated that love to others in the redemptive mission of the Word Incarnate.

Pope St. John Paul II said, "The Redeemer of the world chose the family as the place for his birth and growth, thereby sanctifying this fundamental institution of every society" (Angelus message, 30 December 2001).

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

Now that we have reached the end of this year that God has given us, we raise our prayers of thanksgiving for all that we experienced during this year that is ending. The New Year is a celebration that unites all humanity, it is a moment that marks the end of the past and the beginning of a new opportunity.

May this new year bring to our lives new happiness, new goals, new achievements, many new inspirations, and new blessings. May all our hopes come true and all our dreams come true. It is under the Divine Providence of our Lord that we begin this new year 2024, and we ask for the intercession of our Holy Mother to guide our steps and grant us her infinite blessings.

I thank God for all of you, for your presence and support in the parish, for your devotion in our loving Father and for your journey in faith.

Happy and blessed new year!

Work is for the Good of Man!

Saint Joseph is often celebrated as 'The Worker'. Work surely can be holy. But as the Catechism of the Catholic Church says -"Work is for man, not man for work!" Work done for the wrong reason can be very unholy.

CCC2428 In work, the person exercises and fulfills in part the potential inscribed in his nature. The primordial value of labor stems from man himself, its author and its beneficiary. Work is for man, not man for work. Everyone should be able to draw from work the means of providing for his life and that of his family, and of serving the human community.

Saint Joseph Protector of the Family
Pray for us!

Dear Saint Joseph,
you knew the sound
of pounding nails.

And about the value of work
and making it good.

Though those who worked for evil,
would pound in steel
nails that looked as yours did,
no holy sounds were heard,
poundings and jeers,
they nailed Him to the cross,
Hammer to Nail

Did he remember you
Through pain filled thoughts?
God willed you foster father Joseph,
To raise Jesus with humble work
Watch over all the fathers
Hammer to nail,
And Make their sounds very good,
May their offerings, be given,
through your holy hands,
And protect all families from evil,
Across every earthly land.

"Truly, I doubt not that the angels, wondering and adoring, came thronging in countless multitudes to that poor workshop to admire the humility of him who guarded that dear and divine child, and labored at his carpenter's trade to support the son and the mother who were committed to his care." St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

Celebrate the first American-born saint! St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was born in New York City in the late 1700s and raised Episcopalian. She married William Seton. Together they had five children. He fell ill, and the family moved to Italy for his health. While there, Elizabeth discovered Catholicism. Her husband eventually passed away, but God had more plans for the Seton family. Elizabeth felt a further stirring in her heart. She opened a school for girls in 1808. The calling grew.

Within a year, Elizabeth had founded the Sisters of Charity, the first community for religious women established in the United States. Their work established the first Catholic school system in the country. On her feast day this January 4th, pray for our teachers and students!
