Canonized Saints

Question:

How does a person become a canonized saint?

Answer:

It is important to remember that all the saints are people, real people who lived just as we do! The first saints of the Church were martyrs or theologians known for a holy life. Over time, the Church has established a set process to investigate the causes of saints.

After a holy person's death, the bishop of their diocese initiates the canonization process with the Vatican. Typically, they must wait five years to ensure any false enthusiasm has lessened. With Vatican approval, the process begins and the person receives the title "Servant of God." The first phase involves collecting information about the person's life and scrutinizing it carefully. One person has the specific role of raising doubts — this is the origin of the phrase "devil's advocate!" When it is clear the person truly lived a heroically holy life according to Church teaching, they are declared "Venerable."

If the person is a martyr for the faith, they will also be declared "Blessed." If the person is not a martyr, they must be credited with a miracle. This is also closely examined for authenticity. Once the miracle is authenticated as truly a miracle performed by God through the person or through their intercession, they are beatified. An additional authenticated miracle is required before canonization, and we can call them "Saint."

Pawns or Saints!

“Do not underestimate the importance of the pawn.” - my daughter is looking at me intently through the chessboard. The blue in her eyes - deep lakes of surprising wisdom since she is only ten. “The pawn is important too...” she continues “...The pawn is willing to sacrifice itself to protect the Queen!”

She knows that I being a new chess player have almost made a dire mistake of moving my pawn without thinking about the bigger picture. I have done this simply because there are many pawns and they seem to not have as many gifts as the other pieces. For anyone who has ever played chess, you would know that once you lose the Queen, you lose the game.

Most of us are like lowly pawns in our life. We do not have great powers such as the knights, the bishops, or the rooks. But like the wise words of a budding chess player, don't underestimate the importance of the pawn or the ordinary person. We are each made in the image of God and no one human person is worth more or less than the other in His eyes. Similarly to chess if we consecrate ourselves to the queen and pray the rosary as the Queen - The Blessed Mother - has told us at Fatima - “In the end, my Immaculate Heart will Triumph!”

Saint Maximilian Kolbe was known to be a chess genius. He formed the Militia of the Immaculata and later would be a martyr in WWII offering his life in exchange for a prisoner who was a father and husband.

*Excerpt from the National Catholic Register article Joseph Pronechen
October 9, 2010*

of Father Lucjan Krolkowski, a priest who knew Saint Maximilian Kolbe

“Maximilian Kolbe used to come very often to the seminary. He played chess. He was so brilliant: a genius in math. He would play with 10 seminarians at one time and win every one. But he was humble and gave us a chance to win.

He was a genius. When he applied for the novitiate, there was a committee studying each case. When it came to Raymond — his name from baptism — his professor of math and physics said, “To be a monk would be a waste of time. He is a genius, and they need to send him to the university. He could be another Galileo or Copernicus.” The father provincial said, “Yes, you might be right; he is a genius. But I will tell you, professor, we also have geniuses of the spiritual realm, and we call them saints.”

Prayer is powerful beyond limits when we turn to the Immaculata who is queen even of God's heart.

Saint Maximilian Kolbe

Modern times are dominated by Satan and will be more so in the future. The conflict with hell cannot be engaged by men, even the most clever. The Immaculata alone has from God the promise of victory over Satan. However, assumed into Heaven, the Mother of God now requires our cooperation. She seeks souls who will consecrate themselves entirely to her, who will become in her hands effective instruments for the defeat of Satan and the spreading of God's kingdom upon earth. Saint Maximilian Kolbe

Let us give ourselves to the Immaculata [Mary]. Let her prepare us, let her receive Him [Jesus] in Holy Communion. This is the manner most perfect and pleasing to the Lord Jesus and brings great fruit to us." Because "the Immaculata knows the secret, how to unite ourselves totally with the heart of the Lord Jesus... We do not limit ourselves in love. We want to love the Lord Jesus with her heart, or rather that she would love the Lord with our heart. Saint Maximilian Kolbe

CCC966 "Finally the Immaculate Virgin, preserved free from all stain of original sin, when the course of her earthly life was finished, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, and exalted by the Lord as Queen over all things, so that she might be the more fully conformed to her Son, the Lord of lords and conqueror of sin and death." 508 The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin is a singular participation in her Son's Resurrection and an anticipation of the resurrection of other Christians:
