Heart of Grace

It was exposed for all to see,
 I wore my heart there upon my sleeve,
 Its rhythm set, beat by beat,
 By how others treated me,
 or how other's felt,
 Compelling my heart to reach out,
 Or to hide,
 Bare to all, Heart aflame, pumping raw,
 It took not much to make me bleed,
 My heart just there upon my sleeve,
 A love this way, I always thought;
 Why have You exposed my bleeding heart?
 Until I noticed Your heart...
 Living on the altar, outside of You,
 And Your Mother's pain filled face,
 Her heart exposed, yet full of grace,
 My heart exposed, next to Thine,
 Each pump each beat no longer mine.

*"Prayer enlarges the heart until it is capable of Containing God's gift of himself."
 Mother Theresa*

*"Live then with your heart raised up in GOD, and do not allow yourself to be crushed by sadness."
 St. Paul of the Cross*

"He wants to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. I promise salvation to those who embrace it and these souls will be loved by God, like flowers placed by me to adorn His throne....My Immaculate Heart will be your refuge and the way that will lead you to God."

- Words of Our Lady of Fatima to Sr. Lucia

*"In the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I trust. Look to the Star, call upon Mary! In danger, in difficulty or in doubt, think of Mary, call upon Mary. Keep her name on your lips, never let it pass out of your heart."
 - St. Bernard*

Prayer as covenant

CCC2562 Where does prayer come from? Whether prayer is expressed in words or gestures, it is the whole man who prays. But in naming the source of prayer, Scripture speaks sometimes of the soul or the spirit, but most often of the heart (more than a thousand times). According to Scripture, it is the heart that prays. If our heart is far from God, the words of prayer are in vain.

CCC2563 The heart is the dwelling-place where I am, where I live; according to the Semitic or Biblical expression, the heart is the place "to which I withdraw." The heart is our hidden center, beyond the grasp of our reason and of others; only the Spirit of God can fathom the human heart and know it fully. The heart is the place of decision, deeper than our psychic drives. It is the place of truth, where we choose life or death. It is the place of encounter, because as image of God we live in relation: it is the place of covenant.

Holy Spirit

Question:

How do we know when we receive the Holy Spirit?

Answer:

My brothers and I discovered something as we got older. There's a little bit of dad in us. Each time we catch ourselves using one of his gestures, expressions, or comments about a meal, we say, "I'm getting more like Dad!" Many laughs and good-natured kidding have come out of it. Mom loves it, and so does Dad, although I doubt he'd admit it!

When we are confirmed, we receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit. There is no radical change in us that makes us seem suddenly different. Over a period of time we come to see that there is a little bit of the Spirit in us. We catch ourselves using the gifts, and often end up wondering where a bit of wisdom came from, or why we were so patient or we feel an intensity in our prayer. Perhaps we felt drawn to deepen our spiritual life or found courage in witnessing to our faith. That's when we know we have received the Holy Spirit. We take on his image. Yes, we grow in age, grace and wisdom, but we also grow in our awareness and understanding of the working of God in our life. We become more godlike, realizing we're getting more and more like God. Our thoughts, words and actions carry that quality and others too, see it in us. You might call it holiness. But be confident! There's a little bit of him in all of us.
