GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE
July 7, 2024 | 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Recently I watched a bunch of YouTube videos on how to optimize willpower in the face of weakness. The message was: do not accept your weakness. Crush it. Dominate it. In one video, however, at the end of a rant by a willpower coach, the muscular stoic admitted, "You'll never actually get what you want, no matter how hard you try." Amazingly, he admitted that willpower alone is not sufficient for us weak-willed humans.

What does God want us to do with our weaknesses, if crushing them with willpower won't work? For example, what should I do with my tendency to arrogance and self-isolation? Or my procrastination? Or my intellectual and physical limitations? Or my selfishness?

The counter-intuitive answer is clear in this week's words from St Paul, "I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me (2 Cor. 12:9)." Boast of our weaknesses? Paul isn't promoting weak-mindedness or laziness. Rather, he perceives that Jesus loves us not despite our weaknesses but because of them. Boasting of our weakness means claiming human will is not all we have. It means turning to God whenever we feel weak, which—let's face it—is almost all the time. When we do, we learn to love our weaknesses, because it's there that we meet the strength of Christ. This week, I challenge us to find ways to boast not in willpower but in weakness.— Father John Muir ©LPi

TURN TO GOD

Starfish is an organization located in Guayaquil, Ecuador. Visit the website, www.thestarfishchange.org to learn about its history and activities that support education for children living in poverty. Our parish supports a child named Narcisa, a 12 year old. She was written a letter to a parishioner who will correspond with the student. This is her first letter to us introducing herself and her hopes for the future.

My name is Narcisa Muniz and I turned 12 in April. I am very excited to get to know you through our letters. I have been going to the foundation since 7th grade and I am grateful for the opportunity. This past year was challenging but worth it. I heard valuable advice that helped me overcome obstacles and I tried my best and was able to obtain a scholarship for the first time. This year 2024-2025, I am learning new things that I would have never imagined, which is very satisfying.

My first day of school was exciting, and I was nervous but that is normal. I want to get along with my classmates, learn all I can from my teachers, and to be able to find out my talent.

I have a big family, who are the best supporters. My parents, my 24 year old brother and 21 year old sister are my motivation. My sister is in college and my dad and my brother are hard-workers.

One of my favorite hobbies is dancing, and I hope one day to join an academy. I also like to play video games, up to one hour.

I also wanted to say I have asthma, this condition used to be really bad, but I have been able to control it thanks to my mom, medical intervention, and of course God.

Tell me, what is new in your life that you would like to share with me?

Thank you for reading and I hope to hear from you soon!

With love,
Narcisa Muniz

TIME

We wanted to count TIME by desire,
It's value by what was acquired,
We judged it day by day,
As the sun rose and the sun set,
The second hands threatened as they ticked,

Hidden away rings spiraled, as a tree trunk became wider
Holding its TIME within it,
Until it could hold all hope for eternity,
A man - God- strung across its hidden life,

The way was His,
A simple branch,
or stick,
or trunk would do,
Strong enough to hold God,
But humble enough,
to be cut down,
The rings had been counted around,
Too many could not be carried,
Too few could not carry Him,
Destined – for His TIME of death.

All wondered if at His final moment,
They had lost their only chance,
But seconds continued counting,
In Three days, Resurrection
The TIME was planned -

Now in lonely churches,
Another choice, where He waits,
A simple vessel all the same,
To be pondered in its substance,
All the difference as it changes.
Not all are listening closely,
Not all have the TIME,
Turning bread into his body,
And His blood from the wine.

It is only now, when you kneel before him,
Bend your knees, and bow your head,
That TIME that you have been grasping,
And the later that you dread, In adoration,
God's holy hour does fulfill,
Each moment that is passing,
Is really TIME that is standing still through eternity!

CCC1042 At the end of time, the Kingdom of God will come in its fullness. After the universal judgment, the righteous will reign for ever with Christ, glorified in body and soul. The universe itself will be renewed:

The Church . . . will receive her perfection only in the glory of heaven, when will come the time of the renewal of all things. At that time, together with the human race, the universe itself, which is so closely related to man and which attains its destiny through him, will be perfectly re-established in Christ.

"Divine eternity is 'a never-ending present'" Saint Augustine

Eternity is the now that does not pass away. Saint Augustine

Every Holy Hour we make so pleases the Heart of Jesus that it is recorded in Heaven and retold for all eternity!

Feast of St. Benedict

Have you ever wanted to change the world? 5th century Europe was a dark place. The Roman Empire had fallen, and barbarian tribes were picking over the scraps of what remained. Faith hung on, but there was no consistent, coherent Christian culture in the world around. Young Benedict began his life with education and privilege but became disillusioned by a life pursuing material success. He withdrew to a monastery and spent much time in solitude. He began attracting followers, whom he organized over time into 12 monasteries, with a 13th established to train young monks. He wrote a rule of life including basic principles for living as Christ. His monks took three vows: conversion to Christ, obedience to the local abbot, and stability to remain with the community. Benedictine monasteries became lights in the darkness, secure centers of Christian culture enlivening the faithful beyond their walls. When the world around us seems complicated and contrary to the Gospel, how will you be a light?
