GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE January 26, 2025 | 3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time | Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-21

A young couple in my parish told me they were expecting their second child, a baby boy. I knew that their five-year old only child Emma had been desperately wanting to be a big sister for years, so I said, "Emma must have been so happy when you told her the news." "Actually," they said, "she burst into tears. She wanted a baby sister!" How often in life God wonderfully fulfills our desires and we are sad because we don't approve of the way he does it. We want to control the gift and the delivery method.

The same thing occurs in the Gospel this week when Jesus announces in his hometown that the promise of an Anointed One bringing glad tidings to the poor is "fulfilled in your hearing" (Luke 4:21). After a moment of elation, his fellow townsfolk realize this man is the way God is fulfilling his promises, and they erupt into a violent outburst. So Jesus departs. How sad for them.

Every single Sunday at Mass, including this one, some version of this happens to many of us. God's word announces the fulfillment of God's promises in Christ, and we easily overlook or disdain it. His way is almost never according to our narrow expectations. What's required of us is to set these aside, and to embrace a new openness to God's gifts, no matter how he wishes to give them. God is fulfilling his promises the way He likes — why be sad?— Father John Muir ©LPi

Nihil Obstat! – Nothing Stands in the Way!

A generous parishioner, who prefers to remain anonymous has gifted each of our Faith Formation Students a handbook to heaven! - My Path to Heaven - A young person's guide to the faith -

Using the general format of the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius of Loyola - the author presents interesting and original sketches to contemplate, alongside stories and theological teachings. Each picture probes the reader to ask important questions about their faith and leads them to find the answers in Christ.

The book speaks of the reality of choices, sins, and the pathway to heaven. This book will be food for the entire family since the format provokes depths to contemplate from each individual reader at his or her own ability and level.

This book is endowed with Nihil Obstat -Translated as "nothing stands in the way," and has the Imprimatur - which is Latin for "let it be printed."

In other words, do not be afraid to trust what is written in this book, it has been reviewed and proved worthy by a Bishop of the Catholic Church.

"Only God knows the good that can come about by reading one good Catholic book."

St. John Bosco

"Don't neglect your spiritual reading. Reading has made many saints."

St. Josemaria Escriva

"You will not see anyone who is truly striving after his spiritual advancement who is not given to spiritual reading."

St. Athanasius

Thank you St. Junipero Serra Parishioners for your generosity. This month the food collection on 1/25 & 1/26 will help local, DCF and Head Start Families as well at the Bristol Men's Shelter.

We meet the 2nd Tuesday of the month in the conference room at St. Margaret Mary. Please consider joining us in this the New Year of 2025.

The Annual Diaper and Wipe Drive for local pro-life pregnancy centers is scheduled for February 8th through the 22nd.

Pro-life pregnancy centers are faith-based, community-based, not-for-profit organizations that provide care and resources to assist women with immediate and ongoing needs related to unexpected pregnancy. Their focus is on life-affirming services and is designed to empower a woman to welcome her child into the world. Pregnancy centers provide an expanded range of essential and professional care encompassing support services, medical care, and resources, usually at no cost to the women, men, and youth they serve. Personalized care is provided within a respectful, compassionate, and supportive environment by trained workers/individuals. (Charlotte Lozier Institute)

Please leave your diapers (all sizes) and wipes in the baskets in the vestibules of St. Margaret Mary and St. Francis of Assisi. Our past Diaper and Wipe Drives have been a huge success and appreciated immensely. Thank you for your generosity and support of life!
