ST. JUNÍPERO SERRA PARISH

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEP- ER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

May 4, 2025 | 3rd Sunday of Easter | John 21:1-19

I eat breakfast. If I don't have something substantial, I'm fading by midmorning. Breakfast is my key meal because it sets up my physical wellbeing for the rest of the day.

Spiritually speaking, we need sustenance to get us going. This is true for the Apostles in this Sunday's remarkable Gospel reading. The risen Jesus makes his third appearance to them in the early morning light and calls, "Come, have breakfast" (John 21:12). The exhausted and cold fishermen sit, and he feeds them bread and fish as the dawn breaks. They are overwhelmed by his presence to the point of awestruck silence. As they eat, their bodies and their hearts come alive. Once refreshed by their morning meal, they will be ready to feed others — indeed, the whole world — with the love of the risen Jesus. But first, they need breakfast from him.

Do you realize how essential early morning prayer is? Jesus desires to refresh us every morning with his word of love, with his grace-filled presence. This week, hear Jesus calling to you: "Come, have breakfast!" Embrace some form of spiritual, meditative practice each morning for spiritual strength to get you going.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

THE PRIEST IS FULFILLING THE MINISTRY OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

So many times we can resolve to not do this or that bad thing again. And then our weak nature and circumstances overcome us once again. When we go to Confession, the priest is in the place of Jesus - Jesus is the Good Shepherd, who has come to bring us safely back home again.

“So Jesus said again, “Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came [before me] are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. A thief comes only to steal and slaughter and destroy; I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.” (John 10: 8-11)

Lost Sheep

We are lost in the dark world,
We are without guile and trickery to outwit the wolves,
We are conned easily,
We are lured with kindness,
We are lulled by evil hymns,
We cannot hear the truth from the learned good –
Who are groomed with clothes pressed –
It seems our ignorance made us food for wild animals,
An evil god would let us be eaten,
But Your eyes narrow,
Your feet walk in deep, strong, strides,
The evil flees at the breeze of Your cloak
You scoop us in Your arms,
Penetrate a pitiful reproach with a kiss –
Now why did you do that for?
Our tears and shivers tell You we don't know – we wish we hadn't –
You instantly forgive,
Carry us to safety,
Your concerned eyes makes us sorry,
We bury our face in Your coat –

“I am like the sick sheep that strays from the rest of the flock. Unless the Good Shepherd takes me on His shoulders and carries me back to His fold, my steps will falter, and in the very effort of rising, my feet will give way.”

-St. Jerome

“Jesus Christ, Lord of all things! You see my heart, you know my desires. Possess all that I am—you alone. I am your sheep; make me worthy to overcome the devil.”

– St. Agatha

CCCI465 When he celebrates the sacrament of Penance, the priest is fulfilling the ministry of the Good Shepherd who seeks the lost sheep, of the Good Samaritan who binds up wounds, of the Father who awaits the prodigal son and welcomes him on his return, and of the just and impartial judge whose judgment is both just and merciful. The priest is the sign and the instrument of God's merciful love for the sinner.
